Hundred Sierra Madreans Volunteer To Give Blood For U. S. Fighting Men

City Wins Distinction As Blood Bank Scheduled To Come Here March 27

The mobile Blood Bank of the American Red Cross will be set up at the Sierra Madre Woman's clubhouse on Friday, March 27, for the collection of 100 pints of blood which Sierra Madreans will give to save the lives of America's wounded fighting men.

Once again Sierra Madre takes the lead in responding to humanitarian work as it becomes the first city of anything like its size in Southern California to enlist 100 volunteer blood donors. Registration is still slightly under the quota but there is every indication that it will be exceeded before the specified date.

Use of the clubhouse was secured by Dr. John L. Woehler, local chairman of the Blood Bank committee through the cooperation of the 'Woman's Club' which is giving use of its quarters without charge, and the British War Relief which is relinquishing a regular production day in favor of the Red Cross.

From 9 o'clock in the morning until 1 o'clock in the afternoon housewives, students and business and professional men and women will make their donation with no physical discomfort or disturbance, enjoy a short rest and refreshments at the canteen, and resume their daily routine.

Ten professional members of the headquarters staff of the Red Cross Blood Bank will be in complete charge, assisted by ten or more volunteer workers who are now being organized by Mrs. R. E. Wright, member of the local Blood Bank committee.

Donors who have already registered are asked to stop in again at Red Cross headquarters and fill out regulation cards, specifying the hour which will be most convenient for them. This will eliminate delays and a general rush at any hour.

Donors who have registered during the week are Mrs. Charles B. Klunk, Mrs. Josephine E. Marr, Helen Teller Johnson, Mrs. Hall Perry, Mrs. Harry Caskey, Mrs. Lillian Young Clark, Mrs. F. B. Chase, Mrs. W. A. Kinney, Ralph Hurwitz, Lewis McClelland, Al Miller, Henry Cotti, S. E. McElfresh and Bruce McGill.

New Parking Rule In Business District During Storms

Wooden parking signs on standards which will fit into submerged flag pole openings on sidewalks in the business district are to be issued by the city to merchants along the south side of Sierra Madre Blvd. east of Auburn to Baldwin Avenue, and on both sides of Baldwin from Montecito Ave. to Sierra Madre Blvd. in an effort to prevent flooding of streets due to cars parking in the gutters.

The signs will be placed by merchants during rains and will request motorists to park back three feet from the curb, thus permitting the storm runoff to

ORGANIZATION OF NEW DEFENSE UNITS OF MEN AND WOMEN GETS UNDER WAY

First Aid Medical Auxiliary Corps of the OCD is now being organized here according to Dr. W. B. Heagerty who states that units will be formed for both men and women, and that enrollment is open to anyone who has completed the Red Cross standard first aid course and received a certificate. Women will work in both field and home units.

Personnel of the field unit will be available for orderly duty at the casualty station and with the first aid posts, and also for ambulance duty as driver or orderly.

Home units will furnish personnel to do first aid work in their own blocks, assisting the air raid wardens to care for minor casualties when it will be unnecessary to call on the first aid post.

Speaking of the proposed set-up of the Corps, Dr. Heagerty said yesterday: "The basic organization will be a squad of 12 to 20 teams of six members each, working under the command of a squad leader. Two provisional squads are now organized; the field unit with Mrs. Waverly Pratt as Squad Leader, and Mrs. Steve O'Donnell and Miss Adele Richardson as Team Leaders; Mrs. Harriet M. Dodge is squad leader for the home unit, for which Miss Jean Woodward and Mrs. John H. Robertson are team leaders."

Other squads are now being organized and will be completed as soon as advanced first aid students have completed their course, as eligibility of team and squad leaders is restricted to those who hold advanced first aid certificates.

A blue denim work uniform has been selected by the Corps. Field units are making knapsacks for each member, and medical belts to hold first aid supplies, for team leaders.

Men who enroll will be organized in squads to assist in transporting casualties, drive ambulances or perform medical auxiliary work where men are needed.

Wardens Are First Aid Graduates

Air Raid Leaders Canvass Districts To Give Instructions

First group of local air raid wardens to complete the standard Red Cross first aid course here were recommended for certificates this week by Dr. W. B. Heagerty, who is giving the instruction.

Those receiving certificates are Edwin Bertuch, Ford F. Blake, Jack Buchanan, Arthur Caren, Clarence Cook, Roy Edwards, Ira Fox, Minor Harkness, E. E. Hitchcock, Tom Hunter, Perry Kellogg, Godfred Jacobson, Kenneth W. Kearney, Max Linder, Robert Logan, George Morgridge, Lloyd B. Murphy, Carl J. Pegler, S. E. Peterson, Warren O. Preston, John H. Robertson, Charles A. Root, Joseph Schilling, H. M. Skeels, Samuel D. Tellechea, Russell E. Tyree and Joseph W. Worthington.

Throughout town air raid wardens are now working in the field meeting all residents in their respective districts, and gathering complete data about each family and home.

Crews Named For April Election

Election officers who will serve at consolidated precincts for the general municipal election, Tuesday, April 14, were named by the city council Tuesday evening.

Serving at consolidated precinct A, consisting of regular precincts 1 and 3, for which the city hall will be the polling place, will be Vera A. Gebb, inspector; Marie C. Lord, judge; Bertha L. Irvine and Ora Caskey, clerks.

At consolidated precinct B, including regular precincts 2, 4 and 9, for which the park house is the designated polling place, the personnel will be, Frances Eakman, inspector; Tillie M. Stimpfing, judge; Helen W. Hill and Joe Sadler, clerks.

Precincts 5 and 8 have been consolidated into precinct D for which the polling place will be the Masonic Temple with the following officers serving: Edwin W. Ward, inspector; Agnes Tyree, judge; Hulda Baird and Marie Solary, clerks.

Each of the officers will receive a fee of $5. Polls will open at 6 a.m. and remain open until 7 p.m. Pacific War Time.

IN PLEA FOR CO-OPERATION BY PUBLIC CHIEF AIR RAID WARDEN GIVES INSTRUCTIONS

A plea for co-operation with the air raid wardens of Sierra Madre and instructions as to how this can be best brought about by the people, was made yesterday by Chief Air Raid Warden Bruce McGill. Further and vitally important instructions will be issued in a few days, McGill said, and he strongly urged that every citizen keep him or herself fully informed on the subject for their own personal safety and that of their families and friends.

"There can no longer be any doubt about our being in a danger area and the emergency we all devoutly pray will be avoided may come at any time," said McGill. "We should know by now that the danger is very great. Every last one of us should be prepared. Precautions and training taken now may save the lives of many civilians—men, women and children—your own, perhaps."

Instructions issued by the warden follow:

- 1—Your warden is your friend. Welcome him—get to know him. He has some advice for you on which your life may depend!
- 2—Do these things when the Air Raid Warden calls:
  - 1—Have him meet every member or your family.
  - 2—Tell him where you are to be found when you are away from home—where you work.
  - 3—Tell him about any member of the household who is ill or handicapped. Tell him about all small children.
  - 4—Show him the room you intend to use as a refuge room, ask his suggestions for fitting it up. Follow them—he knows!
  - 5—Ask him what are the official air raid warning signals, the official "all clear," for your community.
  - 6—Show him your attic or garret, ask him his suggestions for protecting it against incendiary bombs. Also garages or outbuildings.
  - 7—Show him where the gas and electric shut-off switches are, in all buildings.
  - 8—Ask him to point out good shelter in the neighborhood, should you be caught outdoors in a raid sometime.
  - 9—Answer his questions—trust him; he is a sworn public official, and must know in order to protect you.
  - 10—Carry out his suggestions for storing emergency water, sand, etc., cheerfully and promptly.
  - 11—Ask him how you can help, where you should go to volunteer your services. Calm, strong, able people are needed for volunteer service. Do your part.

Four Seeking Election To Council

Nominating Petitions Filed For Bruce McGill And Vinton Hoegee

Filing of nominating petitions late yesterday for Bruce McGill and Vinton Hoegee found four candidates in the field for the three seats in the city council to be filled at the municipal election on April 14. Deadline for filing of papers is Saturday.

McGill's petition, circulated by Harry Lange, was signed by Thomas Schwartz, Carl Hansen, Mrs. Ora Estelle Billheimer, J. Milton Steinberger, Dr. John L. Woehler, Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard, Miss Marian Lydia Vannier, Frank A. Spencer, Roy Edwards and Dr. Mervin H. A. Peterson.

The petition of Vinton Hoegee bore the names of Will T. Clements, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Edwin H. Ward, Thomas Miller, Jr., J. S. Billheimer, Harold S. Spears, Eber Thomas, Harold F. Roberts, Cora B. Corum and John H. Ort.

Active candidates now before the public are McGill, Hoegee, Councilman Thomas Schwartz and John Fitzgerald. Councilman Thomas Miller who signed Hoegee's papers and who was generally expected to be a candidate for re-election, has informed his friends he has definitely decided not to seek another term.

If all Sierra Madreans who have registered go to the polls at the city election on April 14, 2700 votes will be cast. Registration of new residents and those who changed their address since the last election totaled 193, according to Waverly Pratt, city clerk.

SPEED WILL DECIDE

Faster creation of new plants and new tools. Greater output from factories and machines now in operation—25 per cent greater.

Citations for individual "soldiers of production" and honors for plants and shipyards who break production records and exceed quotas.

More tanks—now! More planes—now! More ships—now!

That's the program asked of American workmen by War Production Director Donald M. Nelson.

As if in answer to Nelson, Germany last week decreed that all youth march to work in war factories, Italy conscripted the work power of all men from 18 to 55, and captive Rumania began mobilizing for farm production, children of 12 and men of 70!

That means speed and more speed in production of Axis tanks, planes, ships, munitions. It means speed uninterrupted by any strikes or dissension. It means swift and terrible danger to the United States—to every family in this America of ours.

Production will decide this war. It is output of Axis slave labor under the compulsion of the Gestapo against the output of America's soldiers of production under the spur of patriotism.

On the outcome rests the fate of all men who toil—slavery and degradation, or freedom and dignity—for generations to come.

And the outcome rests upon speed.

Last Call

Last minute procrastinators better hustle! There's Monday, March 16, bearing down on you, little more than a few scant hours away. Income tax day is now more than a financial obligation. Your tax dollars this year have become fighting dollars, helping build weapons, helping arm, clothe and feed the country's defenders, helping bring nearer the turning of the tide in this war. For self interest and America's interest, get those fighting dollars in Uncle Sam's hands by March 16th!

Warn Women On Danger Of Inflation

Economist Sees Rising Prices As Threat To Middle Class; Urges More Taxes

Starting with a pessimistic note in his lecture at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club meeting yesterday morning, Dr. Robert Pettigill, professor of Economics at U.S.C., speaking on the subject of "Defense and the Economic Aspects in Shaping Democracy's Destiny," stated that after this war there will be less chance for democracy than before.

Explaining this statement Dr. Pettigill said: "We will go back to our Constitution which reads in part, 'No man shall be deprived of life or property without due process of law.' We are right now being deprived of some of our property through higher prices. We recently heard our president speaking on the danger of inflation, a problem which faces all of us. The day following his talk we listened to Leon Henderson who told us that prices on commodities were up 65 percent over what they were at the beginning of the war. Wholesale prices have gone up 25 percent; retail 20 percent, and cost of living 10 or 12 percent. If wholesale prices go any higher, retail prices will naturally follow and when that happens it will menace democracy in that it will hit hardest those of us in the middle income group."

"Since 1939 our prices have risen as high as England's and Canada's, even though we weren't in the war. I am afraid we are headed for the same disaster that struck Germany, Austria and Russia when they allowed inflation to ruin their economic standards. Their middle classes were completely wiped out. We may not find the entire wiping out of this middle class, but I feel that it will lose much of its importance. We are already feeling this to some extent in the closing down of so many of our smaller businesses."

In discussing the lifted ceiling on the National debt limit from 65 billion to 125 billions dollars or one-third of the National wealth, Dr. Pettigill said it would not surprise him to find that in the future the ceiling would be raised to 250 billion.

"As an economist," he said, "I feel it would be wise to take away the purchasing power of the people whose spending causes inflation—by levying even heavier taxes at the source of income. The more taxes we pay the less danger there will be of our spending power sending prices up. The government needs material and labor and by buying certain things we take those vital factors away from our government."

"To get back to democracy's destiny," continued Dr. Pettigill, "I believe that the destiny of our democracy is tied up not alone with this country but with all the democracies of the world. We must have as many democratic countries as possible to reinforce our own. That means that in the post-war world we must build our belief everywhere in order to keep the foundations here. We must remember to 'do unto others as you would have them do unto you,' not 'do unto others as you have been done by.' The process of democracy demands that we work together as brothers, and remember that now above all other things we must tighten our belts and have wisdom, courage and strength."

Resurfacing Of Main Stem Starts

Resurfacing of West Sierra Madre Blvd. between Michillinda Blvd. and Auburn Avenue, finally got under way Monday, but was halted by the rain yesterday when the new surface had been laid on the south side of the thoroughfare from Michillinda to Lima Street.

City's 1942 Wistaria Fete Is Scheduled To Open Next Saturday

A New Spirit Will Come Out Of Crisis

Minister Defines Benefit America Will Receive From Wars Suffering

An opportunity for all Americans to increase their personal morale through learning that the secret of life is "not in doing what one likes to do, but in liking what one has to do" was defined as one of the major spiritual benefits which will come to civilians through the present world crisis. The speaker was Rev. Wesley Nicholson, pastor of the Neighborhood Church of Pasadena, guest speaker at an inter-club luncheon meeting of Sierra Madre and South Pasadena Kiwanians held Tuesday at Wistaria Vine Gardens.

American war time civilians were classified into two distinct groups by Rev. Nicholson. "There are those of us who are determined to go through this crisis by packing out lives with gaiety, frivolity and fun in an attempt to escape completely the ugly moments of the hour," he said.

"Then there are those who will work through the crisis by developing a philosophy which will meet it. They will have calmness, courage, be forward-looking and smiling, and I believe that out of this crisis will come something which many of us need, that friendliness for our neighbor which has been almost entirely lacking from modern urban society."

Looking into the day to day lives of American civilians in a nation at war Mr. Nicholson foresees a broadening and strengthening of community living which will gradually replace the feverish moving about of the last decade, as transportation becomes more restricted.

Mr. Nicholson said Americans have never learned to control their moods, that they have been the slaves of circumstances, but that now the people of this country will become masters of circumstances and develop a finer, personal morale.

Chairman of the day was Dr. L. M. Evans who introduced the speaker.

Next Tuesday the Kiwanis meeting will take the form of a round table and on Friday there will be an inter-club meeting at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse with the Arcadia Rotary and Lions Club members.

Carl Hansen, president, announced also that tickets will be available for the Division meeting and ladies night which will be held at Pomona, March 24.

SIERRA MADREANS DEVOTION TO A FRIEND PLACED HIM IN SHADOW OF U. S. PRISON

Another Chapter Told In Association Of Homer Lea And A. E. O'Banion

A friendship of supreme devotion which placed a Sierra Madrean in the shadow of federal prison walls when at the cost of his own freedom he upheld a pledge of secrecy, was revealed this week as Clare Boothe's second and concluding article on the life of Homer Lea appeared in the Saturday Evening Post.

Miss Boothe mentioned A. E. O'Banion in the first half of her story last week, and in this issue gives further details of his devotion to Homer Lea, small devoted military genius on whose predictions the attention of many nations is now focused.

O'Banion had been Lea's right hand man during the prelude to the Chinese revolution. He drilled Chinese-American regiments and received the tribute of Lea who declared that he could "drill a troop or a tooth with equal efficiency."

His task completed, O'Banion became buyer for a Los Angeles sporting goods house and Lea returned to China.

However Chinese had been smuggled into California. O'Banion was known to have drilled Chinese for military service and there were men who were willing to testify that he was partly responsible, but at no time did he forget his friendship for Lea. Throughout a long and tedious

Kiwanis To Sponsor Evening With Proceeds Going To Youth Organizations

With the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club assuming sponsorship of the annual Wistaria Fete will open officially this Saturday March 14.

In setting the opening date Bruce McGill, owner and manager of the Wistaria Vine Gardens stated that it had been advanced as the result of continued war weather which has already brought a good display of color to the great old vine.

Local organizations which will benefit from the Fete are all local youth organizations, as the Kiwanis Community Fund through which they are financed will receive 50 percent of the gate receipts each Thursday; and the British War Relief, for which definite day will be set later.

During the middle of the Fete the Sierra Madre Woman's Club will hold a Memorial Day in tribute to Mrs. W. J. Lawless, proceeds of which will buy a defense bond or be contributed to a defense war-time activity. The day will be closely in keeping with the spirit of the Fete which is being carried on this year as memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Lawless.

Gate admission will be 15 cents as in former years and the parking lot will be in charge of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department. The dining room will again be under the management of Irma Perry, Pasadena caterer, but none of the commercial stand will be operated as heretofore.

Conforming to the policy which restricts evening activities where there is danger of possible blackouts, dining service will cease at 5 o'clock and the gardens will close at sunset each afternoon. However reservations taken for all day time functions.

All Garden Fans Are Interested In This Experiment

If putting an electric light in a chicken coop would confuse the hens in laying eggs both day and night, then the same trick should fool California flowers into blooming within a few weeks after planting. Scientists at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena have been experimenting with this theory for some time by applying 24 hours of "sunshine" to flowers with the aid of ordinary light globes. Result of this interesting experiment will be exhibited to the public for the first time this week at the Southern California Spring Flower Show in Brookside Park, Pasadena from Thursday noon, March 12 until Sunday night. Hours are from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

trial, when he maintained his innocence, and maintained also that the testimony given against him was false, he refrained from involving any of the Chinese revolutionists in his defense.

Yesterday Miss Boothe's article stated that he went to the penitentiary for smuggling Chinese into this country. Yesterday also Mr. O'Banion recalled farming for 14 months on McNeill Island and the fate which overtook three of the men whose testimony sent him there.

"Two of the men witnessed fired bullets into their brains in the shooting gallery of the sporting goods store where we had all worked together," he said. "Another was shot in the back by a German during the last war, while still another admitted on the witness stand that he had transported to Los Angeles the dynamite which was used in blowing up the Times building."

Today Mr. O'Banion's attitude is generally philosophical. He knows that the Chinese revolution brightened the horizon for all Chinese and the world democracies. He remembers, too, that when Homer Lea returned from China helpless from a stroke, he stood by day and night, and then when death had overtaken the little militarist, he stood by again until Lea's body was ashes, fulfilling his pledge to Lea, that his head would never reach a scientific laboratory.

SOCIETY

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF DOROTHY WALSWORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Walsworth of South Lake avenue, Pasadena, this week announced the engagement of their daughter Dorothy, to Kellogg Boisot, son of Mrs. Louis M. Boisot of South Grand avenue, Pasadena. The Walsworths are very well known here having made their home in Sierra Madre until four years ago.

A Chinese dinner given Sunday evening by Mapha Club of which Miss Walsworth is a member, afforded an opportunity for her to announce the event. Guests at the dinner found in their Chinese fortune cookies slips of paper on which were written, "Dorothy and Kellogg betrothed." No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Pasadena Junior College. Her fiancé was graduated from South Pasadena High School.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT SURPRISE LUNCHEON

Miss Doris Fletcher, of 634 W. Sierra Madre blvd., bride-elect of Robert E. Gollatz of Pasadena, was honored guests at a surprise luncheon given Tuesday at the Annandale Golf Club by the prospective bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Marvin R. Kuppinger. The luncheon table decorations were in the St. Patrick's Day motif and gardenias were used as place cards. Miss Fletcher and her fiancé will be married after his graduation as an Army Air Corps pilot.

BABY SHOWER TO HONOR MRS. THOMAS MILLER

Mrs. Thomas Miller Jr., will be honored with a baby shower on Tuesday, March 14, at the home of Mrs. Howard Miller of Los Angeles. Among guests bidden to the affair are Mrs. Paul Carter, Juanita Caskey, Mrs. Peggy McLaughlin, Mrs. Sally Dewey, and Mrs. Dotty Burke, Mrs. Jerry Welch, Mrs. Ollie Gorman, Mrs. Dave Gilmore, Mrs. Albert Rone, Mrs. Jean Hardesty, Mrs. Emma Herrmann, and Mrs. J. H. Robertson of Sierra Madre; Mrs. Irene Wilson of Burbank; Mrs. Edith Barnard, Mrs. Hazel Bunch and Mrs. Newt Barnard of Pasadena.

Spareribs Are Nutritious

THERE'S considerable nourishment in a low-cost "one-dish" sparerib meal cooked with mixed vegetables. So try this over a top burner on your gas range: 2 lbs. spareribs, 1 clove garlic (optional), 1 medium onion, chopped, 2 teaspoons salt, pepper, 1 No. 2½ can kidney beans, ½ cup diced celery, 1 can condensed vegetable soup. Cut spareribs into serving pieces and place with other ingredients in a kettle. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1½ hours with burner turned to simmer. Serves 6.

Get A Rabbits Foot; It's Friday The 13th Again Tomorrow

A lot of people who are ordinarily a little careless will watch their step tomorrow—its Friday the 13th. It is the second time this year that Friday has fallen on the 13th, the last one being in February. The superstitious have another day to carry a rabbit's foot or a four leaf clover—Friday, November 13.

On these days a really superstitious person will avoid letting any black cats cross his path, will refuse $2 bills, run from red-haired women, cross his fingers if anyone opens an umbrella in the house, and knock on wood if he breaks a mirror.

A suspicious person will not be the third one to light a cigarette from the same match, nor will he sit at a table where there are 13 persons. We will pick up horse shoes and four leaf clovers, and will not start any important enterprise tomorrow.

He will shun passing under ladders, throw a pinch of salt over his shoulder if he spills any, make a wish on the first star of the evening, refuse the last piece of bread on the plate, and refuse to return to a building to get something he may have forgotten.

Such a person will spend the day looking for white horses to make wishes on, will consider No. 7 a good omen, won't let a tree or pole pass between him and a companion, and will shriek if anyone throws his or her hat on a bed.

New Councilman Is Given Committee Assignments

Vacancy created in the OCD staff here due to the resignation of Lt. Paul N. Carter as chief of information was filled Tuesday night when Mayor W. J. Schiltz appointed Councilman Thomas Miller to take over the responsibilities of information chief. In the future information from all local OCD units will clear through Mr. Miller's committee.

The council also voted to have Bruce McGill assume all committee work formerly discharged by Lt. Carter. This will include serving on the finance, water and zoning committees and on the city planning commission.

Faithful Officer Gets Pay Raise

Official recognition for his faithful and understanding service while on the Sierra Madre police force was accorded Officer James C. Heasley Tuesday evening when on motion of John "Pop" Froehlich the council voted to increase his salary $5 a month, bringing his monthly salary to $155.

Heasley has been a member of the police force since 1930 and has also given valuable civic service as a member of the volunteer fire department.

Sierra Madreans In High Offices Of C. E. Societies

Election of officers to the Pasadena Division of Christian Endeavor at the spring banquet held Saturday night at the Odd Fellows Hall in Pasadena saw five Sierra Madreans elected to guide the activities of the organization through the year.

Don Mathews of 101 Auburn avenue was elected president and will be assisted by Robert Colt and C. J. List, vice-presidents and Miss Dorothy Moore, secretary. Rev. S. R. Sheriff was elected pastor-counselor.

Those elected will take office at the Los Angeles County Jubilee Convention of the Christian Endeavor which will be held at the Shrine Auditorium May 1, 2, and 3, and to which the Pasadena Division expects to send 450 delegates.

Music Minded Enjoy A Sunday Treat

Charming a select group of music minded citizens with her singing, Charline Stansbury, mezzo contralto pupil of Mrs. Grace McCarty, appeared in concert Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Church.

The program included two groups of Negro Spirituals which well received, the Mozart, Alleluiah, which was the high point of the concert; "The Hills of Home," "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from Samson and Delilah, and two selections by Malotte which appropriately closed the concert, "Among the Living" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Stansbury was accompanied by Willard Ganther who gave excellent support and also received warm applause for his playing of the First Movement—Sonata Opus 28 by Beethoven.

SUFFERS A SECOND PNEUMONIA ATTACK

Sierra Madreans were concerned this week over Herbert Dowding, genial P. E. conductor of 514 Ramona avenue, who is suffering his second attack of pneumonia this winter. Mr. Dowding was stricken while on duty Friday and is receiving treatment at St. Vincent's hospital where his condition is reported to be improving. However street car patrons will probably miss his friendliness for several weeks to come.

Garbage Collector Gets Boost In Pay Under New Contract

Mayor Schiltz and Waverly Pratt, city clerk, were authorized by the council Tuesday to sign a new contract with the Whittier Disposal Co., owned and operated by Jack Ackles, which has been collecting rubbish and garbage here for six years. The contract calls for a monthly fee of $130 per month for the duration of the war, an increase of $50 per month. The contract was approved after a meeting between the council and Mr. Ackles, who gave generally advancing operating costs as the reason for the change in rate. Under the new contract his company will collect a wider variety of rubbish, including paint and nursery cans.

At the request of Dr. W. B. Heagerty, blackout lights were approved for station wagons owned by Mrs. R. C. Lyon and Mrs. Steve O'Donnell which will be used for emergency ambulances. Permits for the lights will be issued by Police Chief McMillan.

Purchase of a new electric adding machine at a cost not to exceed $180 was approved for use in the city hall business office, and Wm. Schwartz was authorized to purchase 7½ tons of fertilizer for the city park from Lloyd Welch at $14 per ton.

Mr. Schwartz was also authorized to contact property owners on Vista Circle drive asking for a small right of way across their property for the installation of a cement drain to carry off storm water.

Movie Girls Will Pose For Photo Fans

Joan Leslie, feminine star of Warner Brothers' "The Male Animal," and a bevy of other screen luminaries will appear in person to pose for amateur camera fans at the second annual camera show at the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles, March 14-18.

Details of the "Victory Photo Contest," sponsored by the U. S. Treasury Department, will be announced during the show. National defense displays and a pictorial history of photography from 1842 to 1942 will be featured among other outstanding attractions.

Proceeds will be donated to the Women's Ambulance and Defense Corps of America.

Bush Miniatures At U.S.C. Exhibit

Sierra Madreans who visit the annual National exhibit of miniatures at the Elizabeth Fisher Galleries at the University of Southern California—through March 31—will have an opportunity to see another fine painting by Miss Ella Shepard Bush who is represented by her miniature of E. Scott Townsend of Pasadena. In the retrospective group three of Miss Bush's paintings were accepted. These are "Barbara," "Dr. Bertha L. Dickinson" and "Balustion."

Al Myers Lucky Man, Gets First New Tire

First new tire to be issued here for use on a private car since the advent of tire rationing was approved this week for Al S. Myers, postal and special delivery messenger.

Quota for Sierra Madre during the month of March is 5 new tires, 6 new tubes, two retreads for trucks which qualify but no retreads for passenger cars.

PLAN SURPRISE FOR PRIVATE HINOJOS

Sierra Madre friends of Private Joe Hinojos are planning to surprise him on his natal anniversary Monday, with a shower of greetings which will be delivered at Ford Ord, where he is serving as a private first class with the Medical Division, and doing official photography and reporting for the Ford Ord camp paper, the "Panorama."

Hinojos recently enjoyed a visit from his mother, Mrs. H. Hinojos, who spent six days at the Ford Ord guest house, where wives and mothers of service men are entertained. While on her 18-day vacation Mrs. Hinojos also visited in Monterey and Hanford.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO GIVE DESSERT LUNCHEON

Members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club are giving a dessert-bridge buffet at the clubhouse at 12:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 18th. Admission is 50c and there will be both door and table prizes. In charge of the affair are Mmes. Ernest Best, Al W. Miller, Uno Peterson and Earl S. Bullock. Reservations may be made by dialing CUSTER 5-5955.

JOHN SHIPPEY SENT TO AIR CORPS CAMP

Word received this week by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey from their son John, who recently enlisted with the Army, revealed that he left Fort McArthur last weekend to train with the aircraft replacement corps in one of the Southwestern States.

Victory Gardeners Warned Against Planting Too Early

If you are planting a Victory garden, wait at least two weeks before you put corn and beans in the ground, advised Harvey Moss, horticulturist of Arcadia who spoke at a meeting of the Sierra Madre Garden Club Monday evening at the Sierra Madre Hotel Cafe.

Seeds are not too plentiful, an I should not be wasted, warned Mr. Harvey, who also advised that "God and the California sunshine will not make your vegetable garden a success without assistance."

Following his talk on vegetable growing, Mr. Moss spoke at length on perennials and their culture, cautioning against the widespread use of overhead watering and recommended instead deep irrigation for greater garden success.

Mr. Moss was introduced by Miss Elizabeth Knudsen, editor of the "Green Thumb," who presented bulbs, plants, seeds and small packages of plant food to members.

JOIN WILSON HI-Y CLUB

New members of the Hi-Y Club at Wilson, chosen in February at the second meeting of the year and duly initiated Thursday included Bill Murphy and Sidney Brock of Sierra Madre.

As It Appears

To me

"A typical conversation which might be carried on today between an American soldier dying on a Pacific Isle and one of the folks at home:

"You say that they got you Buddy—that no one can help you now—that this time they gave you the one way ticket? Tough luck fellow—but say—did you hear today what Morgenthau said about taxes?

"Why didn't we get you planes—why didn't we send reinforcements—why did you have to fight on for days without resting—taking the bombings—taking the strafing—practically helpless under the swooping host which had you so greatly outnumbered? Well that's war isn't it brother, and America's fighters don't snivle—but say—did you hear today what Morgenthau said about taxes?

"What's the matter at home—why don't we speed up production—why did the building of planes have to wait while companies held out for their profits—why do the workers strike—why don't we come alive? Leave these to us boy, your business is fighting—but say—did you hear today what Morgenthau said about taxes?

"Are we asleep at home—do we think we can go on living as usual—do we think we can win a war if we sit by the fire with our chessman? Listen brother, American standards are sacred—but say—did you hear today what Morgenthau said about taxes?

"You say you can hear the ground now drinking your life blood, that you can see us at home and that we are failing—that the balance is all askew if we ask your life—but grasp our possessions more closely? You're screwy lad—but say—have you heard today what Morgenthau said about taxes?

—Margaret Ellason.

Boy Scouts Stage "Accident" And Demonstrate Value Of First Aid Training Troop Received

The evening of February 27 found two boys working feverishly over another boy who was lying on the ground. The three boys were Bert Embree, Bob Osti, and Russell Jensen. A pretended accident turned out to be practice first aid carried on by three Boys Scouts of Troop 1, all of whom are active in Boy Scout Defense work.

The first aid demonstration started when Bob and Russell were riding west along Sierra Madre Blvd., on their bicycles. At the corner of Sierra Madre Blvd. and Michillinda Russell's bike supposedly got out of control and he ran into the curb.

First Bob treated Russell for shock and bandaged a scraped ear. He then went to Raymond D. Andrews home and phoned "Doc" Bert Embree. After Bert arrived, he and Bob put splints for a broken arm on Russell, then an ankle bandage for a sprained ankle. The "accident" attracted a lot of attention, people stopped and asked if they could be of any help, or should they go get a doctor. The Scouts considered the practice very successful and stated there will probably be more of them in the future.

UNCLE SAM WONDERS

Uncle Sam has a few more white whiskers in his beard this week from watching the way people juggle their money around in buying defense stamps and bonds. And we can't say we blame him. Here he's pinned his hopes on knocking the prosp out from under any inflationary boom by drawing some of the nation's current income into defense bond purchases. And what happens? Quite well-meaning, patriotic people have raided their savings accounts for the wherewithal to purchase bonds, and sent their current income flying to the four winds. They totally forget that banks are playing an indispensable role in the war effort; that the dollars in their savings accounts are working for Uncle Sam and making defense loans possible; that such withdrawals simply cancel out positive help to war production or against inflation. Nor is this all. Can you blame Uncle Sam for wondering about those people who buy a flock of savings stamps and then, instead of exchanging them for a bond, walk up to the postoffice window and ask for cash? In Cleveland, O., for instance, nearly $300,000 in such stamps was redeemed in January. Only 44 per cent of it went for the purchase of bonds. Two morals: Buy bonds with current income, and don't cash in your stamps. Let's win the war first!

FIGURES HOW MUCH $56,000,000,00 IS

Just how much is $56,000,000,000, the amount the United States has set up as a war budget for the coming year?

John R. Karel, a Wisconsin newspaper columnist, has figured it out in a way most of us can understand. He claims that if the 56 billion were used to buy boxes of matches, it would take the average pipe smoker 1,275,000 years before he would have to borrow a light. By which time his pipe would smell something fierce.

Karel adds: "There are approximately 5,500 words on the average newspaper page. Fifty-six billion pages, or 1,250,000 issues of eight pages. That would make 52 issues a year for 3,425 years, at which time some spongers would still be borrowing the paper from their neighbors." — Asus Herald.

WAR VETERANS TALK OF THE OLD DAYS

Talk of the old days flowed free and fast Tuesday, when Thomas H. Mylott of 696 Woodland drive, a retired mail carrier in Long Beach, entertained three friends for luncheon, all of whom are fellow Spanish-War veterans and retired postal members of Long Beach. His guests included Fred McCullagh, retired postmaster, who fought with Teddy Roosevelt in Cuba; Frank G. Davis, a retired postal supervisory official, and Marvin C. Helper, Superintendent of C.O.D.

SEE OLD MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts are back at work again after an interesting two weeks vacation trip to Mexico City. On their way down they visited Carlsbad Caverns, N. M., and continued via El Paso, Tex., and Monterey, Mex., into Mexico City where they spent two days visiting points of interest, among them being the huge cathedral and the sunken gardens. They returned home by the same route.

The.... Watch Tower

By Ferley Poore Sheehan

A COMMON ENOUGH experience, according to all we hear, and therefore perhaps nothing to write about. But, anyway, here goes. We mean, the way the War is never out of our thought. Day and night. We sleep. We wake. But asleep or awake we are conscious of this fever of the world as though it were a fever of our own. And with it a sort of permanent delirium. One which spreads a film of unreality over the world we used to know. So that we go about as in a dream. A dream which is immensely sad and solemn, no matter how all this lies hidden beneath our surface conduct. Yet a dream which can't be entirely bad. Or bereft of even a certain exaltation. Because of one fixed, unshakable conviction: "That the ultimate victory is OURS!"

WITHOUT weighing the importance—or non-importance—of this conviction as an article of pure faith, like some religious conviction (which, nevertheless, this also undoubtedly is), the truth of it seems to us—less obvious if weighed as a judgment based on certain facts—such as bear directly on just three of the nations involved: America, Germany and Japan. For by America, we do mean ourselves and all those now with us—in secret aspiration if not avowedly. By Germany and Japan we mean all those whose hopes are fixed on the German Swastika or the Japanese Sun. The argument, then, is briefly this: Japan and Germany both have always been on the side of War and Death—like the ancient evil inherited from Cain; while America, conceived in a mellow age of the Earth, came clean of this brand.

IN the case of Germany. There's abundant evidence for the present thesis in old and current literature. As, say, in William Shirer's Berlin Diary. Or, even more pointedly, perhaps, in the March Atlantic, where there's a richly documented piece called "What Makes a German." From which this sample: "The modern German is further away from the trend of Western civilization than was even the German who fought in the war of 1914-1918. He is further away because Hitler and National Socialism are... the final blossoming of a very long evolution..." And the writer refers to those old Wagnerian themes the Nazis have now converted into "spiritual fuel" for their panzer divisions and bomber planes.

WAGNER and the Nibelungenlied. This is no word against Wagnerian music or the Nordic Eddas. Just as one may still love Dante without hankering for an earthly demonstration of his various hells. But the Nibelungen myth is now and always has been the Torah not only of Hitler but of the race that has finally accepted Hitler as their god—the basis and the soul of all their philosophy and ethics. Remember Siegfried's enemy, the "grim" Hagen? A castle on fire and there's wholesale slaughter. Hagen sings out to his men: "Thirsty, are you? Then, drink blood!" Pure Nazi-ism. Hitler loves it. Yet, as the Atlantic author above referred to shows, "Hitler is relatively mild compared to a good many German military writers... the last phase of an evolution towards total evil..."

AS for Japan, hers a similar expression of the tribal soul which achieves fulfillment in War and Death. Together with that same strange duality—found in Germany—the mingling of sentimentality with a ghastly ruthlessness. As if both these peoples were but incarnations of gruesome ancestral ghosts. For whom Japan's Rising Sun still hangs too far down below this world's horizon. In Germany the Nibelungen. In Japan, the hero-epic of The Forty-seven Ronin. Murder. Mass suicide. Sword-worship. The cult of Death—the more frightful the better—as a way to compel respect from both people and gods. Bushido: the way of the bushi, the fighting gentry, men of the sword, who could—and did—do so—taint life with a stench of horror for ordinary folk. Bushido!—which has been called "the Soul of Japan."

AFTER which—honestly—when we come back to America. With all her faults—if such there be. Although, for the life us, we can't think of any—serious enough to mention. When we think of America's "Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness," her "Government of the People, by the People, for the People." When we think of those new "Four Freedoms" to which she now stands pledged. When we think of Jefferson, Washington, Lincoln, Lee; of the Pilgrim Fathers, of Daniel Boone, of all the Pioneer Mothers along those perilous early rivers and out across the lonely plains. When we think

MARCH OF RIMES

By H. F. NOAKE

THAT MAN AGAIN

Who's that knocking at our door? Seems I heard it once before, just about this time last year and now he's back again, I fear. Oh! It's you, well come inside, been so long, I thought you'd died, how about a cup of tea before we start this pamboree? Ne, we haven't one thing new, got to make the old stuff do; have we any bank account? Yes, but juts a small amount. Stocks or bonds? Oh mercy no! Converted those things long ago; what do you assessors pay? Same as other folks: Hurray! What's the tax rate going to be, gosh! A dollar ninety three? We'll be seeing you next year, but somewhere else, it won't be here.

While the Russian armies continue their merciless pounding against Germany's Eastern front, Hitler has discovered that all is not quiet on the Western front—nor does it give any promise of being. With thousands of American troops from Midwestern states pouring into the British Isles during the past week, there is foreshadowed an end to the United Nations' long defensive and a coming offensive blow against Germany in the West. Hitler's Western Front has been further jarred out of its somnolence by the violent attack of the RAF which battered Paris arms plants in one of the most destructive bombings in the history of the war. These events foreshadow that one day, not too far distant, Hitler will find himself pinned in the very dilemma which he has frankly dreaded—a war on two fronts.

One defense plant reports that half pints of milk, distributed to employees in the afternoon when they begin to get tired, have increased production, cut accidents by 30 percent and resulted in a sharp drop in absences. The discovery of the New World offered opportunity to Europe on the grand scale, a chance for countless millions to start life anew in pioneer country unfettered by the heavy weight of outworn custom and tradition. Opportunity, though on a lesser scale, may again be beckoning to similarly adventurous souls in our time. The signing of multi-million dollar agreements between the United States and Brazil, the world's largest supply house of strategic materials, are designed to further the development of Brazil's rich treasure chest of resources. This is but the forerunner of other progressive developments throughout Spanish America proclaiming the fact that the pioneering era of the New World has far from closed.

Geared to the automotive age, America's educational system increasingly relies on the bus to transport students to and from the classrooms. More than 4,000,000 school children are carried daily in 87,400 busses. The world's longest continuously lighted highway is the Queen Elizabeth Way in Ontario, Canada, extending from Toronto to Niagara Falls, a distance of 70 miles, with a further extension of 20 miles proposed to Fort Erie, opposite Buffalo, N.Y. This heavily travelled road through a thickly populated industrial area is well lighted throughout for night driving, making use of the silhouette principle instead of direct illumination. National defense means defense against enemies at home as well as enemies of foreign lands, declares the National Automobile Club, reports that there are few home enemies more dangerous to our security than accidents. Annually, America loses nearly 100,000 lives, has more than 9,000,000 injured and stands losses of $3,500,000,000 due to accidents. "Help Defense—Stop Accidents."

The importance of blinking of the eyes to safe driving, is revealed by scientists who report that it takes one-fifth of a second to blink. On the average, a man blinks about 25 times a minute. If a motorist averages 40 hours an hour on the motor trip of 10 hours, he will drive 33 miles with his eyes shut.

Republican members of the U.S. Senate are patting each other on their respective backs because of Emerson and Thoreau, Walt Whitman, Stephen Foster, Mark Twain. Or—when we just look at this America we see about us here in Sierra Madre. It's as if we hear again the still small voice: "Fear not, little flock; for it's your Father's good pleasure to give YOU the kingdom."

UNCENSORED

By LEONE BAXTER

Far too many offices—local, state and federal—are fighting this war in their publicity departments.

Too many public officials are doing the same. They win battles when they break into print with stories of their vast importance in the war effort and the vital need to perpetuate their jobs. They lose battles when an editor—striving to conserve paper by shortening his own editorials and streamlining his news—gets snowed under by "publicity releases" from every known and unknown source, and consigns them to the armoire to the waste basket.

While civilians, as patriotic individuals, are learning how to gear themselves to the war effort, many public officers so far have learned only that the war makes excellent grists for their publicity mills.

And while the average man and woman are helping proudly to forge a home defense shield against bombs and fire from the sky, too many men on the public payroll are viewing the war emergency mainly as it affects their political fortunes—and working overtime to capture the spotlight.

It is a simple, political practicality that public officials, in order to reach and to maintain public office, have to be opportunists to a degree. But the fine line where a man stops being an opportunist and starts serving for the sake of service, determines whether he's simply a politician or whether he has a bit of statesmanship in his makeup. The public badly needs advice and information in the press from experts on the defense job that lies ahead. It is no help to the war effort when readers have to wade through the wordy pronouncements of every public bureau with a press department, to find that information.

Printer's ink is the lifeblood, certainly, of any press agent worth his salt. But government press agents are working themselves out of their jobs. The more badly-conceived "publicity" they send out, the less they get printed. And eventually the vicious circle of their own creation must cut them down.

In most newspaper offices, the saturation point was long been passed. Walter Wayne, publisher of the Township Register, a fine, hometown paper at Niles, California, who knows what his readers want, has coined a succinct slogan that should be stuck in the typewriter of every press agent on the public payroll and many off it. Briefly, maybe a little sourly, he says: "Conserve the paper—and conserve the publicity!"

WOMEN WILL ATTEND CIVIC CONFERENCE

The 12th annual Women's Civic Conference of which Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt, president of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, and Mrs. John H. Robertson, a member of the San Gabriel Valley Branch A.A.U., are executive board members, will begin March 26 on the U.S.C. campus. Key Army and Navy officials and well known educators are scheduled to speak on current topics.

Pleasant Surprise Given Firemen

Sierra Madre volunteer firemen who know all about the blessedness of giving but not so much about receiving, had a happy and delicious surprise this week when they received a large box of cookies from Miss Kate Patton. The gift was greatly appreciated by the men, and so was Miss Patton's note which read: "This is my way of expressing thanks and appreciation to the firemen who are now guarding our homes from fires at night and thereby giving us a sense of security."

A. L. A. Activities

Americanism and poppy chairmen report that both Sierra Madre public school and St. Rita's are participating in the Americanism essay contest and the Poppy Poster contest put on by the District.

Disaster Relief Chairman Dolly Hill will appoint a committee of there from our Unit to serve for a two months period. Their duty will be to make coffee at the city hall dugout during a black-out emergency, for those who are on duty.

Our next meeting will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Maybelle Barker, 232 Mariposa avenue. Maybelle C. Barker, Press Chmn.

A new protective device for plant night watchmen on the lookout to prevent sabotage comes in the form of a small walking stick. The stick has a tiny rod concealed in the handle. When the watchman presses a button, it sends out a special wireless key signal that can be arranged to set off signal alarms or to notify police headquarters.

What They Say ---

Thelma Baxter, president San Francisco Business and Professional Women—"We are mobilized for victory; we have pledged our resources in terms of trained business and professional women to American victory and the maintenance of the democratic system."

Dr. Tully C. Knowles, president College of Pacific—"History tells us that freedom has not been granted to peoples and nations as a boon. It has been necessary to win it by blood and sacrifice and to maintain it at all costs."

W. G. Swanson, San Francisco Convention and Tourist Bureau—"We expect no shooting here any more than in Chicago, but if there were, we'd hold conventions right up to the shooting—and after. I never saw any yellow anywhere in Old Glory."

Georgia Sumner, San Francisco secretary—"Why it is newspapers always print a woman's age in any story about her—whether she gets married, gets a divorce, gets a job or gets fired? What's the point of printing: 'Mrs. Giotz, aged 48, fell into a manhole today'?"

Daina Barrymore, John's actress daughter—"Most actors are stupid—aside from acting. Reason being they quit school at an early age to carry a spear in the chorus. I myself left off school at 15."

Traveling In Blacked Out Sleeping Car A Trying Experience

Dressing yourself and a baby in a blacked-out Pullman sleeper isn't the easiest job in the world, according to Mrs. Emile Smith who arrived in Pasadena from Cleveland, Ohio, while America's first air-raid alarm was on. The train on which she was traveling was blacked-out at 2:30 a.m. and all shades were lowered to eliminate any possibility of reflections. Passengers bumped into each other, fumbled for their clothes, and finally emerged not knowing how or if they were dressed. The all-clear sounded shortly after the train pulled into the also blacked-out station.

"A man is but what he knoweth," said Francis Bacon and he should know. See how good of a man you are by answering these seven simple Guess Again questions. Place a mark in space provided and check below for the correct answers and your rating.

- (1) On a starry night, the star directly overhead is: (a) the Pole star; (b) the Morning star; (c) Zenith; (d) the Evening star.
- (2) Recently the little Asiatic country of Siam changed its name. It is now called: (a) Iraq; (b) Thailand; (c) Bacteria; (d) Acoma.

- (3) Would you expect to see the little article pictured above: (a) in a barber shop; (b) on a typist's desk; (c) in a doctor's satchel; (d) on a badminton court.
- (4) William Frederick Cody is famous in American history as an: (a) inventor; (b) musician; (c) Indian fighter; (d) epeist.
- (5) Mayfair is a section of the city of: (a) New York; (b) Dublin; (c) Chicago; (d) London.
- (6) Mosquitoes carry malaria, flies carry diphtheria, and the tsetse fly carries: (a) sleeping sickness; (b) scarlet fever; (c) poliomyelitis; (d) cholera.
- (7) "Crazy as a loon" is a common expression, but would you say a loon is an: (a) insect; (b) bird; (c) monkey; (d) movie star.

"GUESS AGAIN" ANSWERS

1. This is worth 15 points for (c)....
2. Take 10 for (b).....
3. (d) gets you 15 points.....
4. This is easy, just take 10 for (c).....
5. 20 big markers for answer (d).....
6. 20 more for (a).....
7. Easy, take 10 for (b).....

YOUR RATING: 90-100, what a man! 80-90, you're not bad either: 70-80, read a little more of Bacon; 60-70, you need building up.

Father-Daughter Entertainment And Banquet To Celebrate Anniversary Of Founding Of Girl Scouts

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts are participating in the nation-wide celebration of the Girl Scout organization's 30th birthday with a father-daughter banquet at 6:30, Friday evening, at Willard Jr. High School. The newly organized intermediate troop will present the colors with a color guard consisting of Phyllis Jean Lentz, Beatrice Metrick and Joyce Ferguson, while the Sierra Madre Senior Girl Scouts, represented by Dorothy Parmenter and Patricia Andrews, will give the readings for the tableaux depicting Scout activities for defense.

Local fathers and daughters attending are David Pian, Marilyn Pian, R. D. Andrews, Patricia Andrews; Andrew Wilson, Lois Wilson; Donald Tarr, Betty Tarr, R. E. Parmenter, Dorothy Parmenter; Earl Wilcox, June Wilcox; W. T. Clement, Joan Clement; Ben Metrick, Beatrice Metrick; Dr. J. L. Woehler, Mary Ann Woehler; John Ferguson, Joyce Ferguson; Philip Lentz, Phyllis Lentz. Local leaders who will attend include Mmes. Dan Strite, R. E. Parmenter, R. D. Andrews, Ben Metrick and J. J. O'Connor.

All mothers of Scouts, Brownie Scouts and Brownies are invited to a program at 7:30 in Willard Auditorium.

GIRLS ENTERTAIN A SOLDIER AUDIENCE

A thousand of Uncle Sam's fighting men now ready for action were entertained by Marileen Scoville, young Sierra Madre marimba player, in a valley city Friday evening. Marileen and her sister Marjorie, appeared in a marimba duet also. Within the next few weeks they will play for other Army men in Hollywood and Pasadena. Marileen will soon fill a radio engagement.

Azaleas At Their Loveliest

Never have the Coolidge Gardens azaleas been lovelier than they are now. In the wide shaded lath houses, the azaleas, growing as if in a forest of their own, are startlingly brilliant. Every tiny branch is aflame with color. Scarlet, pale rose, deep rose, apple blossom, orchids, salmon, flame, mauve, lilac, charming variations in form, for with all its intensity and brilliance there is no sameness to the azalea.

Side Glances and Soliloquies

by Libby Trimble

The return of the milk-maid seems imminent according to the Los Angeles County United States Department of Agriculture War Board, which stated recently that owing to the attractive wages offered by defense industries, milkers are leaving their jobs. So, unless women milkers can be enlisted there will be a milk shortage. Schools may even be set up for the purpose of training women to replace the dairy men. So rinse out your milk pails, you former Mid-Westerners, and be prepared... the cows are depending upon you.

Mediocre philosophical and mystical writers would be at a loss, it seems to me, without the word "cosmic" in all its forms. The cosmic being... cosmically speaking... cosmic love... etc., etc. It's great sport to the uninitiated, however, who feel they've really found something of value. I may be wrong but it seems to me that breaking down the elaborate and mystifying words of these writers who so adore the cosmic is not at all a difficult task. The thing they've said in four technical paragraphs can be summed up concisely and forcefully in one short paragraph.

Don't be deceived by the happy smile of a gent whose wife recently returned from a lengthy visit in the East. He still has the heart of a Simon Legree. It's no longer "One lump or two?" when he passes out the sugar. Instead he hauls out one lump with a string attached and asks, "How many dips?"

I can't quite figure out the modern line of thought. Officials at Pearl Harbor were investigated quite thoroughly upon their failure to fire at the Japanese at the proper moment... then word came along that officials on the West Coast were going to be investigated because they did fire at what they at least thought were Japanese. Ah me! For the life of a soldier. One mental strain after another.

Odd remarks... "It was so late that all the places that are open all night were closed"... "Human nature is always the same and the only thing that makes the big man any different from the little man is the number of doors you have to go through to see the same thing sitting in a softer chair."

Tours Of Beautiful Gardens Sponsored By Girl Scouts

Fourteen lovely gardens in the Pasadena area have been chosen for this year's Girl Scout sponsored garden-tour which will be conducted on the weekends of March 20, 21, 27 and 28.

Each spring these tours are arranged to provide garden lovers an opportunity to see the varied treatment and developments possible in large and small gardens, formal and informal, orchard, vegetable and hillside, and those featuring the rare and unusual in new gardens and flowers. Gardens will be open between the hours of 1:30 and 5 p.m.

Funds derived from the tours are used to support the Girl Scout camping program. This includes their weekend and day camping trips and supplies funds for those girls who otherwise would be unable to attend summer camps.

Tickets may be obtained from The Rikemans or Damon's Nursery.

293 Registered For The Draft Here In Last Enrollment

Local Draft Board 191 at Monrovia announced this week that 293 men in the 20-44 age group registered here for military service during the weekend of February 14.

Total registration for the Sierra Madre-Monrovia-Arcadia district was 1316. Although several men have been called for induction into the Army on February 27, at other draft boards, no calls have been issued in this district for that time. However it is indicated that several men will be asked to report at a date to be set in the middle of March.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

Harold Spears has been elected as the new active member of the fire department to take the place of Al Bray, resigned. Spears is the type the department needs. He has plenty of energy and strength and his work is in Sierra Madre. The town is fortunate in being able to acquire the services of such men as he.

Our drills are calling for much review work, not only of the new members, but those of long standing also. Like everything else, the working of the equipment must be familiar to men who may be called on to use them.

It is hoped that our rains are not over. If they are, we are that much nearer to the fire hazard so much dreaded. Keep the fire's out.

Several of the firemen of Sierra Madre have turned their hands (and feet) to gardening. Hidden behind their fine new home on Mt. Trail avenue, the Estes have a Victory garden. Bill cannot be accused of bragging about the success of the garden, but he would like some of us to know that he had a lot to do about it. This claim can be disputed; his wife is the gardener. Another "fair" looking garden is that of Art Johnson. He really does some of the work. Mechanical as he is, the rows of his "patch" are laid out as tho' with a T-square. In it he has all the common vegetables with an extra row or two of the friendly onion. In order to get the plot plowed, he made one of those famous trading deals of his with Fred Lewis, who owns a gasoline tractor.

All night duty at the fire station is still popular with the boys, each group becoming more and more close thru' friendships made. They say we are finding each other out.

WILL YOU HELP US SAVE RUBBER FOR UNCLE SAM?

A special announcement by your Gas Company regarding war-time service calls to homes

THE war-time shortage of tires has made it necessary to change the routine handling of gas service calls. Possibly these changes will not affect or inconvenience you at all. But in the interests of conservation—your call for service must now be combined with others in your district for efficient daily routing. This will help to prevent duplications of trips when one trip can cover an entire neighborhood and save rubber.

For those who are moving we will try to complete "turn-on" orders the day following receipt of the order, unless some later date is requested. "Turn-off" orders may require a few days longer. Adjustments on your gas appliances or other calls on your Gas Company for service will also require more time. Only emergencies of the most urgent nature can be taken care of on the same day received.

In addition the following cooperation will be appreciated:

1. Please do not request an appointment with the service man for a definite time of day (so that your call may be grouped with others).
2. Please do not ask for any service work to be done at your home after 5 P.M., or on Sundays and holidays.

You can rest assured that your call will be cared for as soon as possible under these war-time conditions. And, of course, your Gas Company looks forward to the day when it can resume the prompt service to which you have become accustomed.

New Masonic Lodge Head Presides At Monthly Dinner

The first of a series of monthly Masonic dinners was given last Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple on East Sierra Madre Blvd., under the management of Raymond D. Andrews, recently installed master. Tables were arranged in the form of a V for Victory and decorations carrying out the patriotic theme consisted of baskets of red geraniums, blue Roman hyacinths and white iris. Past Master H. J. Nord presented Masonry's place in the present world crisis and an announcement was made that future dinners will be given at 6:30 p.m. the first Tuesday of each month.

Install System To Signal Blackouts

An alarm system connected with the Altadena sub-station of the sheriffs office which will signal an approaching blackout, was installed this week at the police department offices. The system is arranged to take care of incoming calls only, and the telephone equipment includes a head receiving set which will be worn by the officer taking alert messages until the all-clear is given. In this way the connection will be maintained during the entire period of any emergency and all instructions will be received here simultaneously with other towns in the district.

Guardsmen See Film Of Bombing That Took U.S. Into War

First hand information of the bombing of Honolulu was given to Sierra Madre State Guardsmen Monday night when they were shown motion pictures of the Japanese sneak raid on Pearl Harbor which catapulted the United States and Japan into war. Refreshments were served later by Sergeant W. J. Barlow, Jr., J. J. Wysocki and Thomas Reynolds.

Lt. A. H. Embree announces that there are now a few vacancies in the ranks of the Sierra Madre Company and that enlistment of any local citizen will be welcomed.

ROBERTA R. MARSHALL

Failing to rally from a cerebral hemorrhage which she suffered February 24, Mrs. Roberta Ross Marshall, mother of Ross Marshall, passed away at the Marshall home, 226 Olivera Place, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Marshall was born in Boston, Mass., and lived for many years in Providence, R. I. before coming to Pasadena with her three sons in 1921. For 17 years she made her home in Pasadena, was associated with a department store there, and had a large circle of Pasadena friends. Three years ago she came to Sierra Madre and since then had made her home with the Ross Marshalls.

Mrs. Marshall is survived by two sons, Ross Graham Marshall, assistant to the publisher, Los Angeles Herald-Express, and Clarence Fuller Marshall, executive secretary of the Downey YMCA; three grandchildren, Robert McVey Marshall, Patricia Ann Fuller Marshall, and David Albert Fuller Marshall; and one sister, Mrs. Delbert Perry, Melrose Highlands, Mass.

Services will be held this afternoon at 3:30 at Ives and Warren Chapel in Pasadena. Following cremation ashes will be interred at Swan Point Cemetery, Providence, R.I.

VIVIEN E. HALL

Requiem Communion service for Vivien Elsworth Hall, aged 43, was held at the Church of the Ascension Monday morning with the Rev. John S. Neal, pastor of the church officiating.

Mr. Hall passed away Saturday at his home, 121 South Mountain Trail avenue, following an extended illness. He was a native of Alliance, Neb., came to California 15 years ago and for the last year had made his home here. Formerly he had owned a retail grocery business in Los Angeles but during the last year had been employed at a shipyard.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Dorothy Hall, a brother Ward Hall of Alliance, Neb., and two sisters, Mrs. Harold Snyder of Alliance and Mrs. Wood Milliken of Denver, Colo.

Interment was in Sierra Madre Cemetery.

WASHINGTON SAID

While just government protects all in their religious rites, true religion affords government its surest support.—Geo. Washington.

What Should You Save To Help?
WASHINGTON, D. C.—The following table issued by the Treasury Department is intended as a savings yardstick for the average income-earner. It suggests how everyone of the 48,000,000 employed persons in the United States may participate in the war effort through the systematic purchase of Defense Savings Bonds.
"The job ahead of us is far bigger than most of us realize," Secretary Morgenthau declared in making the table public. "I know that the American people are ready to do their part to win the war. One of the ways we can do much more is by intensifying our effort in the purchase of Defense Bonds."
While persons without dependents may be able to set aside more than the suggested figures, persons with several dependents, or with other heavy family obligations, may be unable to save at the suggested rate, the Treasury Department pointed out.

Importance Of Closer Relations With South American Republics Shown In New Books At Public Library

So that Sierra Madreans may have an opportunity to learn more of Latin-American countries through their public library, Miss Lulu Moore, city librarian, has prepared a list of books now available, which give a comprehensive picture of the continent to the south. They are also recommended by Miss Martha Pritchard, new member of the library board and for many years associated with library work in the east, who reviewed "Young Man of Caracas" by T. R. Ybarra, and John Gunther's "Inside Latin America," for Sierra Madre Club women, Wednesday.

On the suggested list are the two reviewed books, and "The All American Front," which emphasizes political and economic problems of hemispheric solidarity.

"Salud! A South American Journal," presenting travels of the author, Margaret Banning; "South America," the volume by Carlton Beals which includes Mexico in its human interest information; "The Coming Struggle for Latin America," which gives a shrewd, incisive analysis of intervention by foreign powers; "The New Western Front," in which Stuart Chase pleads for a unified front in the Western Hemisphere; "Other America," by Lawrence Griswold, providing factual data including animal and flower life as well as industrial and military resources, and "Amazon Throne," by Bertita Harding, telling the story of the Braganzas, founders of the imperial line of Brazil.

The library also has two histories used extensively in the schools, "Story of Latin American States," by Sanchez; and "History of Latin-American Nations" by Robertson.

Emil Ludwig's "Bolivar," published this year, is expected at the library soon.

All Star Cast To Appear At Shrine Friday, March 20

All star cast, meaning just that, will bring Don Ameche, Jack Benny, Bob Hope, Jean Hersholt, Veronica Lake (all shown above) and 100 other important stars of stage, screen and radio to the stage at Shrine Auditorium Friday evening, March 20 in the big annual "All Star Show of '42." The mammoth funfest at which audiences will have the pleasure of seeing, in person, all of Hollywood's great stars, is being staged for the benefit of the Mount Sinai Hospital and Free Medical Clinic.

SIERRA MADREAN SELECTED TO HEAD CELEBRATION OF FOREIGN TRADE WEEK

Max G. Linder of 60 South Michillinda blvd., has been selected as the general chairman of the 1942 Foreign Trade Week Committee of the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce.

May 17 to 23, idea for the week having originated here in 1927.

"With most of the world's ships now transporting men and materials for war," Linder said, "some people seem to think there is now no foreign trade. So long as appetites call for such things as safety pins, sugar, silk, bananas, rubber, coffee and multiple thousands of other articles from around the globe, however, international commerce will continue."

"Our immediate problem is to keep vital import materials coming here, so Southern California factories may continue to operate, both in present war production and future production for peace."

Emphasis upon sources of raw materials in Latin America, and upon potential markets for our products there, will be made by the committee, Linder said.

MAX G. LINDER
General Chairman, 1942 Foreign Trade Week Committee, Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce.

represented the Chamber in Hawaii, and has been active in world trade circles for many years.

"When peace is made, the world will trade," is the committee's slogan for 1942 and plans are being made to keep Los Angeles in the vanguard among observers of National Foreign Trade Week.

Another Local Boy Joins Air Corps

Joseph A. Burns, young member of the Sierra Madre fire department who has recently been surveying near Mt. Wilson for the U. S. Forest Service, has enlisted in the Army Air Corps and is now awaiting call.

Young Burns is the son of Mrs. Anna Burns of East Laurel avenue. He is a graduate of St. Rita's School, Cathedral High School and Pasadena Junior College.

"Many of us spend half our time wishing for things we could have if we didn't spend half our time wishing."
